St. Stephen's Episcopal Church Monthly Newsletter

A vital, eclectic Episcopal congregation committed to the ministry of all the baptized.

From Fr. Jamie

I usually try to avoid inflicting my poetry on you, but a few parishioners asked if I would share the poem I wrote for my friends, Mike and Linda Hall, on the 10th anniversary of their ordination. This poem was read at their anniversary celebration at Shepherd of the Hill Episcopal Church in Lecanto, Florida on July 2. So, here it is.

On the Feast of St. Alban

For Linda and Mike Hall on the 10th anniversary of their ordination to the Diaconate

There was a change.
It was an electric charge we felt

above us
subtle as a breeze.

There was a spark
as it came upon you

with anointed hands
laid upon your sweating heads.

It kindled a flame
among the husks

and tinder
of former lives.

Everything in you that was not needed
was shed

so that you could without doubt

embrace that one holy moment
when the veil –

that ephemeral barrier between us and that other place –

was lifted,
and heaven

drew close.

In that moment

the ground at your feet
was sacred as Sinai.

In that moment,
the earth and all its promises

fled. What happened

there, before the altar was fire. We saw it as it shook its wings

and spread.

– Jamie Parsley June 22, 2017

I hope you are having a wonderful summer.

Going-Away for Darcy Corbitt

As you may know, Darcy Corbitt will be moving back to Alabama at the end of July. We will formally say goodbye to her on Sunday, July 30, with a special coffee hour. Please join Darcy on this day so we can thank her for her many contributions to St. Stephen's over the last two years.

Going-Away for the Stewarts

Jan and Mike Stewart will be moving to Pennsylvania at the end of August. We will bid them farewell and thank them for their many years of companionship and service at St. Stephen's on Sunday, August 27, with a special coffee hour following Mass. Please join us that day to say good bye.

Confirmation/Reception into the Episcopal Church

On Sunday, October 21, we are very grateful to have Bishop Carol Gallagher visiting us on her second official visit to St. Stephen's.

An Episcopal Visitation is an occasion for people to be Confirmed or Received into the Episcopal Church. In Confirmation, we publicly reaffirm, in the presence of our local community and the Bishop (whose presence represents that of the whole Church), the promises we made—or which our parents made on our behalf—at baptism. Those who have been previously Confirmed by the laying on of hands of a bishop in another communion of the Catholic Church, may be received into the Episcopal Church. In anticipation of the Bishop's visit, Fr. Jamie will be offering his ever-popular Episcopal 101 class for anyone who wishes to be Confirmed or Received.

If you are interested in being Confirmation or officially received into the Episcopal Church, please contact Fr. Jamie.

Education Committee Update

The Education Committee of the vestry met with Children's Chapel leaders this past month to discuss the various elements of this important program for our preschoolers and younger elementary students. The findings were that the greatest need is for additional adult leaders to help with the program. There are many established curriculum materials available for use by leaders, and the committee assures any new person stepping forward that she/he will have an experienced leader working with them as they assume this engaging and vital role in our parish. Please note that this role only requires 1-2 hours per month, or as much time as you would like to give it!

Also discussed was the potential for establishing a formal youth program for the elementary age school children and teen members of the parish. Perhaps you are that needed person? We can't make this thing work without you. Contact Amy Phillips or Mike Morrissey for more information.

Around St. Stephen's

Baptism

James Bryan Anderson Gelinske, the son of Tiffanie and Bryan Gelinske, was baptized at St. Stephen's on June 2.

Wedding

Matthew and Elena Kuschel were married at St. Stephen's on Tuesday, July 11.

Burial

The Burial Liturgy for Marlys Lundberg, who died June 10, in Yuba City, CA, was held on Friday, July 7, at Hanson-Runsvold Funeral Home, with Fr. Jamie officiating. Following the service, her ashes were buried in Riverside Cemetery, Fargo, beside her husband Lowell.

Window Dedication

An update on the stained glass progression: the St. Cecilia window will be dedicated on Sunday, August 27. The St. Stephen window will be dedicated in October. The remaining three windows will (God willing) be dedicated next year. Thank you to Gin Templeton for her dedication to this wonderful project.

Other News

Our very own Sue Morrissey's painting was named "Best of Show" at the 58th Annual Midwestern Invitational at the Rourke Art Museum in Moorhead on Sunday. We are so proud of you, Sue!

Ken Bennett's latest book of poetry, Grandma's Rebellion, was published in June. The book is now available at Zandbroz Variety in Fargo, or just ask Ken. Copies are $10.

Darcy Corbitt's Wednesday night "Becoming an Ally" class at St. Stephen's was featured on WDAY on June 9. Please check out the story: <https://www.wday.com/news/4283755-woman-hosting-series-others-learn-about-metro-lgbt-community>

Great Plains Food Bank—July 29

We will need a team of St. Stephen's folks - at least 10-12, on Saturday, July 29, from 10 am - noon. We'll be repackaging food again as we did in April. There's a sign-up sheet in the undercroft. Join us as we make our contribution to the ongoing need and effort to alleviate hunger not only in our community, but across the state. THANKS.

Pledge Update

Many thanks to all those who are faithful and timely with their pledge payments for 2017. The graph above shows that, as of the end of June, we are on target in terms of expected and received pledge income. Please remember to keep your pledges up-to-date as the summer continues.

Thanks to William Weightman

William has organized St. Stephen's participation in Pride weekend events for many years. Other projects are demanding his attention so he will pass this project to Steve Bolduc. We extend our gratitude to William for his devotion and ingenuity.

Thanks to Kim Baird

Kim Baird has served as editor of the Ambassador for many years, but the time has come for her to pass the baton. We extend our gratitude for her excellent work and faithful service. With this issue of the Ambassador, Sandy Kenz takes over as the new editor. Our thanks go out to Sandy for taking on this role.

New Church Directory

A new, updated 2017 directory is now available. Thank you to Donna Clark for compiling the information and to Sandy Kenz for preparing and printing the directory. Directories may be picked up at the church.

An old Episcopal grandmother finally decided to read the Bible. She purchased a large-print edition and read it cover-to-cover. When she finished, she pulled the rector aside at coffee hour and confided, "I really enjoyed reading the Bible, but I was surprised how much it quotes the Book of Common Prayer!"
